

Workshop programme

- 8:45 Welcome and coffee
- 9:00- 9:15 Introduction by An Ravelingien & Johan Braeckman
- 9:15- 9:45 Dirk De Ridder, 'Neuroenhancement by implantation of electrodes in and around the brain.'
- 9:45-10:00 Discussion
- 10:00-10:30 Matthew Liao, 'Children need love rather than pills.'
- 10:30-10:45 Discussion
- 10:45-11:00 coffee break
- 11:00-11:30 Valérie De Prycker, 'A critical note on fast and easy ways to happiness. The relevance of effort.'
- 11:30-11:45 Discussion
- 11:45-12:15 Rebecca Roache, 'Self-esteem, mood enhancement, and human flourishing.'
- 12:15-12:30 Discussion
- 12:30-14:00 lunch break (Pand restaurant)
- 14:00-14:30 Julian Savulescu, 'Performance enhancing drugs and marriage: the chemicals between us.'
- 14:30-14:45 Discussion
- 14:45-15:15 Rein Vos, 'Drugs and other therapies looking for good moods – enhancing the individual good or the social good?'
- 15:15-15:30 Discussion
- 15:30-15:45 coffee break
- 15:45-16:15 Maartje Schemer, 'The dynamics of the treatment-enhancement distinction: ADHD as a casestudy.'
- 16:15-16:30 Discussion

16:30-17:00 Bengt Brülde, 'Can mood enhancement make us less happy?'

17:00-17:15 Discussion

17:15-18:00 round table, closing remarks by An Ravelingien & Johan Braeckman

18:00 reception and dinner